► Description

This volume is part of a series of picture books based on picture scrolls. The story develops over the course of a three-meter long picture, which is folded accordion-style inside the book. The author is a pioneer of nonsense picture books in Japan. In this one, children on a school outing enter the aquarium through the open mouth of a fish on the front cover, to encounter an array of surprises, such as a walking shark, a shrimp bus, an old man dugong, and underpant squids. Also vividly portrayed are the excited reactions of the children all the way through to the exit on the back cover.

表紙の大きな魚の口が、びっくり水族館の入口。中に入ってみると、エビバス、オバケウオ、オジサンジュゴン、パンツイカなど、作者ならではの大胆、過激な発想による、不思議な海の生き物が次々に登場します。
